the best comics of all time. Darkly humorous, insightful social commentary, amazing artwork. Like Hunter S. Thompson before him, Spider Jerusalem is a hero for our times.

Warren Ellis and Darick Robertsons masterwork of gonzo science fiction and political soothsaying is finally available in a majestic Absolute Edition just as Nostradamus predicted! As vital and engaging today as when it first hit the stands, the weaponized viral meme that is TRANSMETROPOLITAN occupies the toxic quagmire that runs between the burning wreckage of print journalism and the repellent echo chamber of online media. Set in a terrifyingly plausible future defined by ever-accelerating technology, TRANSMETROPOLITAN shoves readers outdated brains into an fMRI scanner and rewires their flabby cortexes into screaming processors of truth! This second of three volumes collects issues 19-39 of the original series together with the one-shot special FILTH OF THE CITY, and features a new introduction from Robertson as well as a host of historic extras.

"Transmet is brilliant future-shock commentary."--Spin
"Warren Ellis and Darick Robertson take a Hunter S. Thompson analogue and put him through a 23rd century wringer. It's angry political sci-fi and it's funny as hell."--Playboy TRANSMETROPOLITAN follows the exploits of one Spider Jerusalem, famed outlaw journalist and agent provocateur, as he reports on the world around him. This world is located sometime in our near future, when nanotechnology has transformed Earth's culture without changing a thing about how mean and vile humanity can be. Best of all, all of this is presented with a sense of humor so dark that it leaves radiation burns. Sci-Fi Universe Masterful. Aint It Cool News One of the funniest, smartest, edgiest works of science fiction of all time.
