Gene Luen Yang, Michael Dante DiMartino : Avatar: The Last Airbender - The Rift Part 2 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Avatar: The Last Airbender - The Rift Part 2:

We blow through them in a sitting. If I'd realized that, I would have waited for the compiled stories. No, I wouldn't have waited. Nevermind. I pre-ordered all of these so far.The art is always beautiful, and very consistent with the art we're familiar with in the TV show.

Personally, I love seeing the kids growing up, so these post-show comic series are lots of fun. In The Rift, Toph has to deal with everyone's expectations of her, and that's pretty powerful for my 7-year old daughter to read and learn from her example. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great story but bad product. By Buhrp Enjoyed the book however the cover fell right off a day after I got it in the mail. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great graphic novel By The Brain Great graphic novel. The authors stay true to the character created/based on the original animated series. The artistry is great and really beautifully done. Every so often the response/dialogue are a little off from the characters, but I feel that might be due to the genre the characters are now being present through. Comics are different from TV.

Written and drawn by the team behind the best-selling books, Avatar: The Promise and Avatar: The Search, Gene Luen Yang and Gurihiru, in collaboration with the Avatar: The Last Airbender and Legend of Korra animated series creators Michael Dante DiMartino and Bryan Konietzko, this is the ultimate continuation of the Avatar animated series and the perfect companion to the currently-running Legend of Korra!

About the Author Gene Luen Yang began drawing comic books in the fifth grade. His 2006 graphic novel, American Born Chinese, published by First Second Books was a National Book Award finalist as well as the winner of the Printz Award and an Eisner Award. His 2013 graphic novel diptych, Boxers Saints, is also a finalist for the National Book Award. The author lives in Oakland, CA.
