We've purchased all of his Action Cat, Tiny Titans, and Super Powers books, as well as The Mask. The illustrations are really well done and the writing is humorous. Our son is in first grade, and is at about a level 3 reading level. These books are written at a higher level (not sure what that would be), so we help him with some of the words. He's so engaged and enjoys reading them so much however that he has real incentive to sound out most words that he doesn't know on his own. I really can't say enough about these comics

About the Author Art Baltazar started making comic books with his self-published comic book, The Cray-Baby Adventures. Since then he created other comics such as Gyro-Man, Captain Camel the Space Chicken, Jimmy Dydo, Lunar Lizard, Meteor Mite and Patrick the Wolf Boy. Baltazar has also had a brief tenure with Warner Bros. and had a monthly comic strip in Disney Adventures Magazine titled Gorilla Gorilla. Baltazar has completed a graphic novel titled The Big Amoeba for Platinum Studios. In 2012, Baltazar founded a comic book shop with his partner and co-owner Franco Aureliani. Baltazar was the artist and co-writer with Aureliani of Tiny Titans, for which the two won a 2011 Eisner Award for Best Publication for Kids. They also won an Eisner in 2014 for Itty Bitty Hellboy.
