Jhonen Vasquez, Eric Trueheart : Invader Zim Volume 1 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Invader Zim Volume 1:

sharper which is to be expected from the talent behind the comic now that they do not have to work within a kids tv show. Bottom line, as I read this I could not stop laughing out loud. What more do you want from a comic? 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Long live Zim! By Alden D. An awesome and amazing continuation of the ill-fated series. If you like the series, these are the same people who wrote it and drew it making the books so you'll love this. Do yourself a favor and get it. :) 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Zim is back! You can't lose this opportunity of seeing him again! By Itzel Rivera Castro For a great fan of the mighty Zim, this comic is so fantastic! Zim is back, so you'll be happy to know that many of the former people who were behind this TV show are now behind this comic! We all miss the TV series, of course. We all miss the voice acting and animations, and we all want them back, but I think it's okay if we can resurrect our childhood through these comics. I recommend you to purchase the volumes instead of the individual comics. Volume 2 coming soon :) I would like to thank to our lord Jhonen Vzquez for bringing back such an amazing cartoon. Hope these comics have an excellent rating among fans. Long live Invader Zim!

"Never has a comic so purposefully stupid lied on a foundation of comedic skill so honed and smart." You said it, Paste Magazine. From the far reaches of weird space to the incomprehensible world of underground art, ZIM is back! And his thirst for world domination has only grown! ZIM and his filthy evil ways have been gone for what feels like years. But Dib KNOWS the alien menace will rear his head again, and he won't leave the house, or his 900 security monitors, until it happens. And it WILL happen. Oh, it WILL. Collects the first five issues of the comic series based on the hit TV show, INVADER ZIM!
