Francois Debois : Jack the Ripper before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jack the Ripper:

1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Comic Book!By BelboAlthough a very nicely illustrated book, this is a comic book with a hard cover. Not clearly labeled as such, was hoping for a book. I will read and likely enjoy it, but am disappointed that the item description did not clearly indicate this was a comic book.2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Lake fisherA great collection addition!1 of 2 people found the following Spring, 1889. Months have passed since Whitechapel was covered in blood, and while the mystery surrounding Jack The Ripper goes cold, Inspector Frederick Abberline is still a man obsessed. But when a series of killings identical to the Ripper's occur in Paris, Abberline must risk everything to close history's most famous murder case once and for all! Reprinting French publisher Soleil's classic Jack the Ripper in English for the first time!

About the Author Francis Debois was born April 11, 1975 in Britain, where he spent his childhood. From the age of 7, he had a passion for American comics. Fan of Christopher Claremont, John Byrne and Frank Miller, he began very early to write and draw stories of superheroes. He then discovered Dune and it was a revelation. In the 90s, he participated in the adventure Sugar COMGA, an association of amateur authors who wanted to create comics and manga comics. He then met Jean-Marie Minguez. It was through him that Francis became acquainted with Jean-Luc Istin. The three partners decided to develop ideas together, and that was the beginning of Magic Enchantment. Francis began writing or co-writing new projects at French publishers Sun: Tales of Dark Forest, Tales of Ankou, the Grail Quest, Fairy Tears, Hero Academy and Delcourt: Oxygen. The author lives in Paris, France.
