She invites him over where he spills out his frustration. But Valentines day is around the corner and the other girls ask Sawako to help them make chocolates for their other halves. Sawako is ready to give them to him, but things tend to go awry. Can she give her love the chocolates she made, or will Karumi or his father end up being an obstacle to her goal?I have finally caught up with the series, and have been enjoying it. Now we know the series will probably end in soon and I plan on reading each one until then. I just hope the author does bring about the ending most of us want, a wedding scene. I can not wait for the next story and the start of their third year.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great!By AndreaAll of these volumes are awesome! AwesomeBy BellaCool and amazing how this book is written and drawn by the author. One of the best graphic novels yet.

Sawako Kuronuma is the perfect heroine...for a horror movie. Nicknamed "Sadako" after the haunting movie character, everyone is afraid to come near her for fear of being cursed. But her whole life changes when she befriends the most popular boy in class, Shota Kazehaya. At career conferences, Kazehayas father blows a fuse! As Kazehaya shares his complicated feelings about his strict father with Sawako, their relationship deepens. Its just in time for Valentines Day, when Sawakos plans to give Kazehaya chocolate for the first time receive a surprise twist!
