James Chambers : Kolchak: The Poe Crimes before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Kolchak: The Poe Crimes:

From tell-tale hearts and premature burials to black cats and the Red Death, reporter Carl Kolchak grapples with deepening horror and madness as events from Edgar Allan Poes tales of mystery and imagination come to life in modern-day Baltimore. Kolchak teams with a street magician who performs tricks and escapes inspired by Poe to expose the supernatural power bringing the authors deadly visions to life and solve a series of terrifying occurrences, disappearances, and murders.
