A perennial classic: the complete cartoon work of the underground cartoonist for 1970 and 1971. Back in print after a several-year absence, and with Crumbs popularity ever-rising, the seventh volume of The Complete Crumb Comics spotlights Crumbs work from 1970 and 1971, the peak years of Crumbs hippie stardom which led to the grip of paralyzing, crippling self-consciousness that for years became increasingly harder to push past, as Crumb writes in his introduction. Included from this era is the entirety of Crumbs work from underground classics such as ZAP, The East

Village Other, Bijou, Mr. Natural, Uneeda, Esquire, and much more, including strips featuring classic Crumb characters like Fritz the Cat, Flakey Foont, Angelfood McSpade, Bo Bo Bolinski, and Shuman the Human. 16 color, 128 bw illustrations

About the Author Born in Philadelphia, R. Crumb is the author of numerous comic works and one of the pioneers of underground comics and arguably one of the most famous cartoonists in history. His books include The Book of Genesis Illustrated by R. Crumb, and many more. He lives in the south of France with his wife, the artist Aline Kominsky-Crumb.
