Ardine This volume of The Vault of Horror includes a few of my favorite tales; the best being "Shoe Button Eyes" written by Johnny Craig and drawn by Graham Ingels. Unlike other EC horror offerings, this one verges on the sappy; what with its Christmas setting, evil step dad and a mistreated blind child. Although clearly designed to tug the heartstrings, it never fails to break me down every time. Only the truly jaded will not cheer for the little boy and his teddy bear. Also included are a few stories that later became televised on HBO's "Tales from the Crypt" cable show. The best known would probably be another Craig masterpiece about Santa...but this one definitely chills the heart, not tug upon it. All said, another quality edition of the EC Archives series. Money well spent once again. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy NicKGreat series, excellent read! Very interesting! Loved it!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Super good!By Veli-Pekka SilvanI love this classic comics art!

Dark Horse Comics brings even more macabrely majestic stories from the Vault! This terrifying tome has been digitally recolored--using Marie Severin's original palette as a guide--and features stories drawn by all-star comic artists Johnny Craig, Graham Ingels, Joe Orlando, Jack Davis, Jack Kamen, Graham Ingels, and George Evans!
