Perfect for the Ultimate FansBy TheWalkingKittyPerfect for any TWD fan that likes to collect or wants to know more about the progress of the covers of the comics. The quality of the pages are really nice, no complaints on my part.24 of 26 people found the following review helpful. Only if you're interested in the making of the coversBy Parka[[VIDEOID:moG03PTW8C4WLA]]This book is presented in hardcover, roughly the same size as the comics. Inside, it collects cover art of the single issue volume 1-50, trade paperback volumes 1-8, Books 1-4 and Deluxe Hardcovers 1-2. There are also sketches and unused designs. If you are a collector of the comics, you already have majority of the art. The reason to buy this book is probably the commentary if you're interested in how they come up with the covers. Creator Robert Kirkman, artists Tony Moore and Charlie Adlard look back in hindsight at what they like and the ones that didn't work out well. The art is beautiful but there are a few misses as well - all that are mentioned in the commentary provided. This book is more for the ultimate collectors. Casual fans probably can do without it. Besides, most of the cover art can be found easily online. (There are more pictures of the book on my blog. Just visit my profile for the link.) 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great book By Brandon Avery I feel like all the questions asked for the review did not apply to what this book is at all. This is a book about the covers of the first 50 comics. I bought my wife the compendiums and she did not know this existed so I got a lot of cool points on her birthday. She is enjoying the write ups that go with each cover.

In celebration of the Five Year Anniversary of The Walking Dead, Image Comics presents this full-color hardback collection of the first 50 covers of the series, as well as covers for the various collected editions of the series, with added sketch material and commentary by series creator/writer Robert Kirkman, and artists Tony Moore, Charlie Adlard, and Cliff Rathburn.
