Art Baltazar, Franco Aureliani : Tiny Titans vol 3: Sidekickin' It! before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Tiny Titans vol 3: Sidekickin' It!:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. CuteBy VeronicaI bought this and some of the others to help encourage my 6 year old to read. He loves superheros and of course TEEN TITANS GO! While the words are somewhat on par with a K/1st grade reading level the actual font was kind of small and the comic style made it hard for him to read. I think when he gets a little bit more use to reading these might work for him but right now they are too much. I thought the stories were super cute though and as an adult obviously I didn't have any problems reading and following along with the comic style. Maybe not for super beginner readers but slight more advanced. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Kathy Harris Kid tested, 5 and 7 year old approved. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A book that encourages him to read!! By Maria F. Lew Adorable book for kids who love superheroes! They are in comic book form, but if it makes my son read, it's fine. I also purchased the other books in the series. Comic books that a new reader can start on.

See what life is like at Sidekick Elementary! What could possibly go wrong when the kids of Sidekick Elementary spend an afternoon in the Batcave? These all ages tales from the DC Universe, beautifully written and illustrated by Art Baltazar and Franco, will entertain new readers and seasoned fans of comics.

About the Author Born in Chicago, Art Baltazar found his way early to comic book art and has been cartooning ever since he can recall, self-publishing in 1994 with such titles as The Cray-Baby Adventures, Gyro-Man, Captain Camel the Space Chicken, Jimmy Dydo, Lunar Lizard, Meteor Mite and the famous Patrick the Wolf Boy. Art also created an autobiographical graphic novel called The Big Amoeba for Platinum Studios. He lives outside of Chicago with his wife, Rose, and their children Sonny, Gordon, and Audrey. Bronx-born writer and artist Franco Aureliani has been drawing comics since he could hold a crayon. Currently residing in upstate New York with his wife, Ivette, and son, Nicolas, he spends most of his days in his Batcave-like studio where he produces DC's Tiny Titans comics. In 1995, Franco founded Blindwolf Studios, an independent art studio where he and fellow creators can create children's comics. Franco is the creator, artist and writer of Weirdsville, L'il Creeps, and Eagle All Star, as well as the co-creator and writer of Patrick the Wolf Boy. When he's not writing or drawing, Franco also teaches high school art.
